

Dr. Eve Fenton

Dr. Eve L. Fenton is part of the senior leadership team, which gives pastoral oversight to the church membership. Rev. Dr. Eve Lynne Clarke-Fenton has been a leader in Christian ministry, together with her husband, Abraham E. Fenton for over forty years.

Eve Fenton's ministry to women, youth and children has won the hearts of audiences across the continental United States, Canada and South America, England, the Caribbean islands and the US Virgin Islands.

For ten years, Eve co-hosted the television ministry "Living by the Word" -- which is a teaching and motivational ministry transmitted by satellite across the USA and to foreign countries to this day.

Dr. Eve Fenton is a co-founder of Women in Covenant, a ministry dedicated to establishing and repairing relationships among Christian women. She has also co-founded Ministry to Ministers, a ministry dedicated to strengthening ministers and their wives.

Dr. Eve Fenton focuses intensely on the unity of the Body of Christ through Koinonia International - a ministry which promotes goodwill, understanding, and cooperation among diversified groups of Christian believers.

Dr. Eve L. Fenton's teaching style is engaging, clear, and imbued with profound wisdom. As she shares the life-changing principles of the Kingdom of God, her gentle, yet straightforward leadership gift is highly valued here at Abundant Life Fellowship Church.

Her educational background includes in depth study at Cambridge University, West Indies School of Theology, and Jameson Christian College. Dr. Fenton is a certified Christian Counselor.

As a member of the governing body of the church, the Apostolic Council, Dr. Fenton functions as Minister of Stewardship, among other responsibilities.
